Issue overview

Welcome to the first issue of this year's AI Matters Newsletter. We open with a Conference reports by Louise Dennis. This second article is an education piece by Todd Neller describing the FairKalah Model AI Assignment. We close the issue with a call For nominations for the 2022 SIGAI Industry Award.

Submit to AI Matters!

Thanks for reading! Don't forget to send your ideas and future submissions to AI Matters! We're accepting articles and announcements now for the next issue. Details on the submission process are available at <http://sigai.acm.org/aimatters>.

Ziyu Yao is co-editor of AI Matters. She is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science at George Mason University. Her research interests lie in natural language processing (NLP) and artificial intelligence (AI), particularly building natural language interfaces that can reliably assist humans in knowledge acquisition and task completion. She also works in NLP/AI for other disciplines such as Software Engineering and Bioinformatics.

Anuj Karpatne is co-editor of AI Matters. He is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech). He leads the Physics-Guided Machine

Learning (PGML) Lab at Virginia Tech, where he develops novel ways of integrating scientific knowledge (or physics) with machine learning methods to accelerate scientific discovery from data.
